

Welcome to the Canadian Children's Optimist Foundation

If you are new to our site, you are likely visiting because your ❤️ wants to help out the young folks of Canada. If you are looking for a place to donate money that will make a difference to Canadian families and Canadian communities, you've found your home here with the Canadian Children's Optimist Foundation. We are a not-for-profit Foundation, registered with Canada Revenue Agency. We help Canadian Optimist Clubs help the young folks in communities all across Canada.

If you are an Optimist looking for ideas and information about projects and funding to help your club and community, you too have found your home here with the Canadian Children's Optimist Foundation. We exist for the sole purpose of helping Canadian Optimist clubs help the young folks in communities all across Canada.

It will warm your ❤️ to support the Canadian Children's Optimist Foundation. Partner with us: together we can help more young folks and their families in more communities all across Canada.
